

+7(495)6331620

omd@msawt.com

Address: 2/1 Novodanilovskaya Naberezhnaya, Moscow, Russia 117105.

Moscow state Academy of water transport teaches students in all areas:

- Preparatory faculty (Russian language course);
- Bachelor's degree (engineering and technology land transport. operation of transport and technological machines and systems);
- Specialty (engineering and technology land transport, navigation, operation of ship power plants, exploitation of marine electrical equipment and automation facilities areas of training specialists);
- Master's degree (engineering and technology land transport, technology of transport processes (logistics of international transport), operation of transport and technological machines and systems);
- Postgraduate studies.

Documents required for admission to MSAWT:

- Application for admission to study indicating the chosen specialty and form of study;
- Document certifying the identity of the applicant and his citizenship (original and notarized translation into Russian);
- Education document indicating the subjects studied and the grades received (original and notarized translation into Russian);
- Medical certificate of the established sample about absence of contraindications for training in Russia with the mark about results of the analysis on HIV infection;
- Photos of the established sample;
- Certificate of knowledge of the Russian language (exception: preparatory faculty).
- Legalization of documents.